WHO WE ARE

About 10 Thread Embroidery

"Personalised embroidery crafted to last."

— Deb, Founder of 10 Thread Embroidery

10 Thread Embroidery is a Western Australia-based custom embroidery studio founded on a passion for precision, creativity, and personal service. Owned and operated by Deb, the business has grown a loyal following thanks to its combination of high-quality craftsmanship, fast turnaround times, and genuine care for every customer — whether they're ordering a single personalised gift or a full corporate uniform package. Every stitch at 10 Thread Embroidery is made with pride. Using premium threads and professional-grade embroidery machines, Deb ensures that each item — from a confirmation stole to a branded business apron — receives the same level of meticulous attention. The studio caters to businesses, sports clubs, schools, individuals, and anyone who wants something truly special and lasting.

HOW IT WORKS

Our Simple 5-Step Process

Getting your custom embroidery is easy, fast and hassle-free.

01

Send Us Your Design

Upload or email your logo, artwork, or design concept. Any format works — JPG, PNG, PDF, AI or EPS. Not sure what you need? Just describe your idea and we'll help guide you.

02

We Digitise Your Logo

Our expert team converts your artwork into a professional embroidery-ready digitised file. We optimise every detail — stitch type, density, thread colour — for the best possible result.

03

Approve Your Sample

Before production begins, we create a sample and send you a detailed mockup for approval. We won't start until you're 100% happy with the design. Changes at no extra cost.

04

We Embroider With Precision

Using premium threads and professional embroidery machines, your design is stitched with care onto your chosen garments or items. Every piece is inspected for quality before moving on.

05

Fast Delivery to You

Your finished embroidered items are carefully packed and dispatched. We ship Australia-wide with tracking, and offer express turnaround for urgent orders.
